

Our TAF mobile team develops innovative IT solutions for public transport companies.

For our customers we offer IT-full-service single source. This diverse spectrum offers many possibilities for our employees.

To expand our team we are looking for an:

Android Developer (m/f/d)

Are you interested in mobile applications? Have you got experience as an Android Developer? Have you got a basic knowledge of iOS?

If yes, we are waiting for your application.

We offer:

- Challenging projects for various clients
- Creative work environment
- Open cooperation in small teams with flat structures
- Permanent work contract
- Regular team events

Your responsibilities:

- Work in a team that implements innovative mobile projects
- Development of new mobile applications
- Improvement of existing Android applications

Must Haves:

- Experience as Android Developer with Android Studio
- Good knowledge of the Android User Interface Guideline
- Good knowledge of Swift and/or Java
- Experience in using webservice / REST
- Experience in working according to agile frameworks (Scrum)
- Very good English

Nice to have:

- Experience in cross platform development tools
- Basic knowledge of iOS architecture and concepts
- Experience in CI build tools (Jenkins)
- Good understanding of usability concepts and GUI design
- Experience in working with JIRA and Confluence
- Very good German

We are looking forward meeting you! Please send your complete application forms incl. expected salary per eMail to jobs@tafmobile.de. Contact person is Sandra Melle.